

1st Call for Participation

Duna-Drava National Park Directorate invites you to participate at the conference

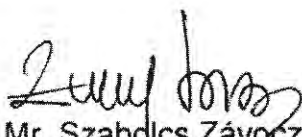

„Protection of White-Tailed-Eagle in the Danube-valley”.

The topic of the conference is the white tailed eagle species and habitat protection measures, focusing on international importance. The opening lecture will present the transnational conservation strategy of the EU.

The conference will be held on 18th-19th October 2011, in the town of Szekszárd, Hungary.

Lectures up to 20 minutes long and posters are invited. Please contact us if you are interested in sharing your experiences in the field of white-tailed eagle protection.

Please indicate your intention to participate or contribute with a presentation, by sending an e-mail to parrag@ddnp.kvvm.hu or by fax to the number +36 72 517-229
